

REVISED DELIVERABLES FOR STUDENTS CHANNEL LEADERSHIP

What follows is an addition to and broadening of deliverable 60.1.2: Strategic Priorities for 2001 & Operating Agreements for Students Channel Leadership as requested and approved by the client and Modernization Partner.

- A series of meetings with desired outcomes and agendas for planning a Leadership retreat in March, 2001
- An overarching architecture for the retreat that builds on the last Leadership retreat and determines a pathway to action for achieving the Students Channel 2001 objectives
- A detailed agenda for the retreat outlining the desired outcomes, activities, timeframes, logistics, and responsibilities for the retreat
- Briefing meetings to set individuals up for success at the retreat
- Facilitation of retreat planning meetings
- Facilitation of the retreat
- Leadership skill training and development with a pocket guide for future reference
- Lists of requests each functional area has of the whole leadership team and of other functional areas
- Lists of commitments people have made to working together across functional areas
- First pass action plan for dealing with Gallup results
- Individual commitments to experiencing a student/customer related activity in another functional area

This is a detailed explanation of the summary that is outlined for this deliverable.*